A Lunchtime Lecture

'The Workman Family of Nineteenth-Century Belfast'

by Dr Alice Johnson, Queen's University Belfast

The Workman family was part of the middle-class industrial elite. This lecture will track three generations of the family, including the Rev. Dr Robert Workman (Newtownbreda 1862-1918). The Workmans were Scottish-descended Presbyterian textile industrialists, deeply involved in the town's civic, religious and charitable institutions.

This event is free, however booking is essential
