

Newtownbreda (St. John's) Presbyterian Church
Announcements: 3rd February, 2019

Welcome to everyone, especially any visitors with us this morning.

Tuesday 10.30am Carers & Tots.
5th Feb

Wednesday 10.30am - 12.30pm Pins & Needles in the Cairns Room.
6th Feb New members will be made very welcome.

Thursday Koinonia: Dr. David Hume MBE is a writer, historian, journalist
7th Feb and broadcaster. He is the author of several books on local and Irish history and has featured regularly on local radio and television. He is probably best known as the 'vertically challenged' historian who joined six-foot Belfast comedian Tim McGarry in the BBC series 'The Long and the Short of It' to investigate little-known Ulster-Scots stories and well-known historical events. David will talk about famous (and infamous) emigrants from Ulster. We meet at 10.30 and everyone is welcome.

Friday 10.30am Coffee & Chat.

Voting for Congregational Committee

Voting lists have now been drawn up and each voter will be receiving their voting papers from their district elder in the next few days.

We are looking for 18 members of congregational committee and would encourage the congregation to think prayerfully as they consider possible names.

The deadline for reception of voting papers is 8.00pm Sunday 24th February. They can be posted to Rev Anne or Bruce Robinson or left in the box in the Foyer.
