7th May No Evening Service

Sunday 10.30am Christian Aid Service followed by a Bread & Cheese Lunch in the 14th May St John's Hall.

May 14th - 20th is Christian Aid Week. Today the world is facing the worst humanitarian crisis since 1945. People are starving to death in ever greater numbers. Will you help such people in desperate need? Your support will not only save lives now - it could give the next generation hope and a chance to build a brighter future too. Will you be willing to give up some of your time with the House -to- House Collection in our area. This will take only a couple of hours. Please, please speak to Fiona in the Foyer if you can help. The more volunteers we have the less time it takes!

Update on Uganda Trip

We've reached our washcloth target, thank you, so no more of them are needed.

We still need nailbrushes and pants/underpants.

Girls pants: we have a good supply for age 5/6, 7/8 and 9/10 upwards

- so need more for ages 3/4, 4/5, 6/7, 8/9.

Boys underpants: more for all ages up to 10/11, especially from 3-7, would be great.
